

Press Release

On April 17, 2010, Livingston County Catholic Charities (LCCC) hosted our 25th Anniversary Celebration & 6th Annual "Salute to the Stars" at St. Agnes in Fowlerville. The evening started with Mass celebrated by Bishop Earl Boyea of Lansing. It continued on with guests enjoying a fabulous dinner and exciting entertainment with music by 4 Men and a Babe and the singing comedy routine by St. Agnes Sister Act. Additionally, four individuals were honored for their work in the community. At the end of the evening drawings were held for two different raffles, one for monetary prizes and the other for some fabulous donated items, in which the proceeds will be used to support the professional services we offer to community members.

This event was a huge success, in large part due to the generous donations and sponsorships from Pavlock & Pavlock PC; Dr. Edward Loniewski; Old Oak Financial Planning, Inc.; St. Joseph Mercy Health System Livingston Hospital; First Impressions Print & Marketing; Ann Arbor Rehabilitation Centers, Inc.; Hon. Theresa Brennan; K of C Council #7304; Bredernitz & Wagner Co. PC; Law Offices of Neal D. Nielsen; Borek & Jennings Funeral Homes; Hon. Carol Hackett Garagiola; Professional Photographer Rick Minton; Kickers & Joey's Comedy Club; Waldecker Pontiac Buick; Tom Kizer; Gem & Century Theatres; Marilyn & Jim Rhadigan; Detroit Princess Riverboat Cruises; and Michael McGivney, PC.

Livingston County Catholic Charities has grown from initially offering Mental Health Counseling to now offering, in addition, Substance Abuse Treatment & Prevention; Family Life Programs; and programs for seniors such as Be Our Guest Adult Day Service, Interfaith Volunteer Caregiver Program, and Resource Advocacy. LCCC has been driven over the years to add programs to meet unmet needs within the community. Our mission drives us to help all in need, through our programs, regardless of race, religion, gender, financial ability and disability.

We could not do all of this without the continued support of the community. LCCC is proud to be a part of Livingston County and to work in collaboration with all of you to make life a bit easier for those who turn to us in time of need. We look forward to a strong future and partnership within the community.

Honorees: Dcn. Jim Chevalier, Barbara Dine, Dori Sabourin and Ron White.
