Reflections..... from the Administration and the Board of Directors

Since our earliest days as an organization, teamwork has consistently been an important value. Like many organizations, we have gone through periods in which the feeling of team has been strong and other periods during which teamwork has struggled. Our growth over the past several years has challenged us to work together, and to work with others, in differing ways. Despite some struggles, we believe that we have responded well to this challenge.

We are blessed with a tremendous team of Coworkers, a very strong Board of Directors and close to 100 volunteers throughout the organization. Together, this group of people provided over 41,000 units of service to almost 2,500 people. We are grateful to each of them.

As of June 30, 2014 we are a team of 40 coworkers, 10 of whom have been with us for 10 or more years. This provides us with much wisdom and stability as we continue to expand our service delivery.

On a four year cycle, we go through a national accreditation process with the Council on Accreditation (COA). COA is the standard bearer of quality service delivery for family service organizations in the same manner that JCAHO is for the health/medical industry, North Central in the field of education and ISO 9000 is in industry. Our reaccreditation covers all LCCC programs and services and is good through December 2017. While this is a rigorous process, we are very proud to have once again earned this achievement.

CLIENT STORY

So Much Had Changed While I Was Away...

"I was paroled in May after serving 20 years in prison!

So much had changed while I was away and everything was very overwhelming. Family, money, job, feelings, trying to just find my way and where I fit in.

Yet each week I could count on my therapist and group being there to answer my many questions, listen to me and offer suggestions and support. Becoming a part of Livingston County Catholic Charities has helped me unmeasurably to transition back into society.

I now look forward to the time when I can help others and influence people in a positive way." J.S.

Staff Anniversaries

In addition to our reaccreditation, this year also has seen us begin the drafting of a 2014-17 Strategic Plan. Areas of focus include our long-term occupancy needs, the on-going strengthening of programs and services, and the analysis of our ability to respond to other community needs, whether existing or emerging.

Our most significant growth during this fiscal year has been in child welfare. We served 33 children during this fiscal year, with 9 adoptions and 2 children returning to a birth parent. This has been rapid growth for us and we look forward to serving local children and families for many years to come.

As the agency grows, so too does the list of our partners, supporters and others to whom we are deeply grateful. Everything that we achieve is with the support, prayers and partnership of many people and organizations. It is through this partnership that we continue to shape and change lives.

Yours in Service,

Thomas Janego

Special Grant Funds at Work...

LCCC continues to be blessed with special funding that assists with in-house projects. This year LCCC received a grant from The Raskob Foundation, along with two other anonymous donors, to purchase and implement an Electronic Medical Records System. This will enable LCCC to be compliant with the record keeping and reporting requirements of the federal Affordable Care Act.

Grant funds were also received from the Livingston County Consortium on Aging to assist with our Christmas Blessing Project that serves homebound and low income seniors with care packages of food, paper products, hygiene and cleaning supplies as well as a Christmas gift. This project is a partnership of many organizations, individuals, schools, churches, and groups. With all of this support, 117 seniors were assisted in 2013.

Other generous grant funds were received from the Diocesan Services Appeal, DTE Energy Foundation, Catholic Campaign for Human Development, Robert W. & Maxine C. Parker Foundation and First Presbyterian of Brighton.
